

RAFFAELLO 500

SEE LINK BELOW FOR MORE INFORMATION

On April 6, 1520, Raffaello Sanzio, one of the geniuses of the Renaissance, passed away in Rome.

Five hundred years later, Italy and the world celebrate the Maestro through a number of multimedia initiatives.

The force of one of the most creative artists of all time challenges the global crisis caused by Covid-19: as we await for cultural venues to open their doors again so we can view the art behind them in person, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MAECI) offers an overview of some of the initiatives planned for countries abroad on the occasion of Raffaello's anniversary -- multimedia content that can be viewed remotely via online and social spaces dedicated to #Raffaello500 and #Raffaello2020, starting today.

THE EXHIBITIONS:

Raffaello Opera Omnia

The Farnesina, in collaboration with Raicom, has produced and created two virtual exhibitions of reproductions of paintings painted by the master who hailed from Urbino, in high definition, entitled Raffaello Opera Omnia.

Magister Raffaello

Magister Raffaello is a travelling exhibition that winds along an path comprising of multiple cognitive, visual and auditory systems: six of Raffaello's fundamental works are linked to a grand singular narrative that facilitates the understanding of the profound meaning of the Master's work and its relevance in the history of universal art.

CLICK HERE FOR MORE DETAILS

learn italian at the istituto italiano di cultura in one of its two locations downtown or vaughan. call 416.921.3802 ext. 227/228 or check www.iictorontocourses.com

I nostri records indicano che abbiamo il Suo permesso per mandarLe emails. Se non desidera ricevere la nostra Newsletter invii una e-mail a: iictoronto@esteri.it

Our records indicate that we have your permission to contact you via email. If you wish to UNSUBSCRIBE, please send an email to iictoronto@esteri.it